Getting “Leggy” at the Sate Fair

Gypsies in Action!

On Friday, August 8, the troupe gave a wonderful performance at the State Fair in Augusta, NJ. They had a good audience and enjoyed the show greatly. Afterwards, the coordinator of the Fair’s Arts Foundation offered “kudos” for the gals, which was truly appreciated.

Ongoing Outreach

Besides giving monthly donations to Children International, Doctors Without Borders, St. Jude’s Partners of Hope (for children with cancer), and The Humane Society of the United States, on a “leap of faith” the troupe is now adding the International Rescue Committee as well. They continue promoting their “Motion With A Mission” program via the nursing home shows and benefit shows throughout the year. Dancers welcome!

Halloween Happy

On Sunday, October 19, some of the dancers will perform in Halloween costumes at Belle Reve Assisted Care in Milford, Pennsylvania. They are hoping that a dancing pumpkin, a pirate, a Renaissance queen, a flapper, and a private detective (to name some) will cheer the residents into laughter!

Motion & Mistletoe

Mark your calendars for Sunday, December 7th, as The Champagne Girls will host “Motion & Mistletoe” with the Interfaith Hospitality Network of Sussex County being the recipient of the donations. (The program “houses the homeless” of Sussex County.) The price of a ticket is, as always, $10 for audience and guest dancers. There will be a light buffet, Santa Claus, lots of dancing, and maybe even an elf or two will pop in! The show will be held at the VFW Post in Butler, NJ.

“Spring Into Motion” Easter Show

On Sunday, March 29th, the gals will be hosting an Easter Show. Charity recipient has not been decided yet. Details to follow in January 2009.

New Teaching Schedule for Shiri

Commencing September 2, classes offered in Lafayette Village will be as follows: Tuesdays, 6:30 “Jazz-A-Belly” (mixed level); Tuesdays, 7:30 “Learn to Bellydance” (beginners); Thursdays, 6:30, “Belly Buster” (mixed levels); and Thursdays, 7:30 “Choreography Only” (intermediate) New students have signed up through Sussex County Community College, and registration is still open.
